The Lorraine W. Frank Office of National Scholarship Advisement (ONSA) helps Arizona State University students compete for national and international fellowships and scholarships. We advise all ASU students – undergraduate, graduate, and alumni – from all five campuses. There are over 60 national programs available through our office including opportunities for study abroad, internships, research and post-grad experiences.

Students are encouraged to search our scholarship database, attend upcoming information sessions, and schedule one on one advising appointments at http://onsa.asu.edu.

You can filter through our scholarship database to find what opportunities are out there for you! See how to explore the database using the steps below:

Step 1: Go to https://onsa.asu.edu/scholarships

Step 2: Browse through the different filters and click on those that apply to you (areas of interest, candidate profile, emphasis, eligible students)
Step 3: Once you have selected what filters apply to you, click the Apply button.

Step 4: Once you click Apply, the opportunities that fit your filters will appear!

Step 5: To learn more about the opportunities that appear to you, click on the maroon scholarship program link:
Step 6: Scroll through the overview of the scholarship program to find details about the eligibility and application requirements:

https://www.gilmanscholarship.org/

Benefits:
Over 3,200 scholarships of up to $5,000 will be awarded this academic year for U.S. citizen undergraduates to study or intern abroad. Award amounts will vary depending on the length of study and student need with the average award being approximately $4,000 for fall and spring programs, and $3,000 for summer programs.

Applicants who are studying a critical need language while abroad in a country in which the language is predominantly spoken will automatically be considered for the Critical Need Language Award, for a total award of $8,000.

Eligibility Criteria:
Students must be receiving a Federal Pell Grant or provide proof that he/she will be receiving a Pell Grant at the time of application or during the term of his/her study abroad program or internship.

Students must be accepted into a study abroad program or internship eligible for credit by the student's accredited institution of higher education in the U.S.

Step 7: Want more information? Click on the Foundation URL to be taken to the direct program site!
Step 8: After doing a little more research, if you are ready to apply, schedule an appointment with an ONSA Advisor here: https://bass.barrett.asu.edu/apps/barrett/advising/

For information or questions contact, Bri Miloz Office of National Scholarship Advisement Program Coordinator at brianna.miloz@asu.edu.